GAS CO. PICNIC

EMPLOYEES FROM THREE COUNTIES ENJOY DAY IN SANTA MONICA CANYON

A picnic, every detail of which was on a generous scale, was given by the Southern California Gas Company for its employees and their families, Saturday. About 650 arrived at the point of attraction, the Santa Monica Canyon, at 10:30 a. m. and from that time on animation and competition reigned supreme. Some of the many laughter-provoking stunts that were written on the program and worked out by the fat, the slim, the clumsy and agile were as follows: Men's three-legged race, ladies' potato race, boys' relay race, fat men's race, fat ladies' 50-yard puff (and Mr. Phelon says it was a puff), boys' flag race, division managers' backward race, and ladies' and gentlemen's rapid transit race. In the last-named race all started running together, but near the close each gentleman picked up his lady and carried her bodily to the finish. This occasioned much merriment. There were also the boys' wheel-barrow race, girls' peanut pick-up, boys' shoe scramble and last but not least, the tug of war with the Los Angeles county men on one side and San Bernardino and Riverside counties on the other.

Bathing was also indulged in, and with the bestowal of prizes and stowing away of refreshments, dainty and good, the day was voted a great success and pleasure by all who were there. There were about thirty who represented Glendale with their families.

REV. O'NEILL ENDORSES PILGRIMAGE PLAY

Rev. James S. O'Neill says he visited the Pilgrimage Play in Hollywood last week and was wonderfully delighted with every feature. He had heard some adverse comments on it and many of his congregation who had wished to see the play had refrained from doing so because there were no Catholics in the cast and also they had heard that it was not true to the teachings of the Catholic Church. He says he observed every feature of the play closely and that it is absolutely true in every particular to his conception of the Christ and His life on earth, that it is reverent in its treatment of the Savior's life, work and teaching. He advises every one who can, Catholic, Protestant and those of no professed faith, to see the play.

BUMPER CROP OF POTATOES

The potato crop is reported to be of unusual proportions this year, especially in the San Fernando Valley, where it is thought to be the most valuable crop of the season, unless it be eggs. Both these overshadow the bean crop, heretofore holding first place. Wholesale potato prices are steadily declining, according to market reports, the growers getting only about 3 cents a pound now. But so many middlemen take their toll before the spuds reach the homes of the consumers that the retail price remains high. An investigation conducted in the East last week brought out the fact that there were seven middlemen between grower and consumer and that some sacks of potatoes examined contained 20 pounds of dirt, which, of course, brought the same price as potatoes. Pretty rich soil that.

ENJOY TRIP

KEPLERS RETURN FROM AUTO TOUR, WHICH INCLUDED LAKE TAHOE

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Kepler and son Wesley of 200 West Garfield avenue returned Saturday from an auto trip which covered considerable territory and about three weeks' time. They spent most of the time camping at Soda Springs, near Truckee, which is not far from Lake Tahoe, their objective point. They report the roads as in good condition and the weather pleasantly cool while on the way. While the gasoline shortage seemed to adversely affect some travelers they met, the Keplers obtained a sufficient quantity to keep them going. They had no machine trouble at all nor any accidents, though they saw the evidences of several by the roadside, in the way of wrecked machines. The Keplers enjoyed the trip very much and are very well satisfied with the good behavior of their car.

BANK CHANGE

BANK OF GLENDALE SELLS TO LOS ANGELES TRUST & SAVINGS BANK

Interests connected with the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank have arranged for the purchase of the Bank of Glendale at Glendale avenue and Broadway, and its branch at 104 North Brand boulevard. As soon as the deal can be completed and the stock transferred it is expected that the Bank of Glendale will become the Glendale Branch of the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank.

The Bank of Glendale is one of the strongest outlying financial institutions in Southern California and is under the control of F. H. Vesper, who has been the President of this institution since 1906. During the Vesper regime the Bank of Glendale has been built up until it now has a capital of $75,000 with $9,000 of surplus and undivided profits, and total deposits of more than $1,200,000. Under the terms of the option it is only necessary for the stockholders of the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank and of the Bank of Glendale to hold their separate meetings and to authorize the transference of the property, practically all of the stock of the Glendale institution being already in escrow.

Application must, however, be made to the Superintendent of Banks in order that the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank may operate the Bank of Glendale as a branch of the Los Angeles institution.

Mr. Vesper said this morning "Under the plan that has been worked out with the interests buying, the people of Glendale will be enabled not only to carry on their business here as usual, but will also have the additional advantage of the support which the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank can give to this institution through the extension of the work of the Bond Department, the Trust Department, the Escrow Department, the Real Estate Department and other forms of banking carried on by a modern metropolitan banking institution.

"I have promised the Los Angeles people that I will stay with them during the period of consolidation and as long thereafter as is necessary to fully work out the problems involved."

Not only will the people of Glendale benefit by the proposed change in operation, but the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank will itself benefit in that it will add to its clientele the people of one of the richest communities in Southern California. It is, of course, understood in this arrangement that the present employees of the Bank of Glendale are not to be disturbed. They will remain with the new institution.

CATALINA EARTHQUAKE HOAX

The Evening News has had many inquiries the last three days about the awful earthquake that shook Catalina Island like a terrier shakes a rat, caused it to sink 10 feet and drowned hundreds of people, while others were madly climbing to higher levels while wireless calls were sent to the mainland for a fleet of boats to rescue them. All inquirers were assured that the report was considerably exaggerated, as there had been no earthquake, nobody was drowned and no wireless or other calls for help had been received. Who was responsible for originating this hoax has not been learned, but true it is that many people believed it. Perhaps the shade of Joe Mulhatton has come back to earth to thrill the world with a new series of colossal yarns.

KANSAS DAY

JAYHAWKERS MAKE A FINE SHOWING IN S. S. CONTEST, CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Wild sunflowers, sometimes called Blackeyed Susans, were very much in evidence Sunday morning, when Bible School opened in Central Christian Church. The piano was fringed about with them and they appeared as bouquets in vases, baskets and boxes. Gallardi and blooming alfalfa added effectiveness to the decorations, also. The attendance was the largest in many weeks, which shows there is certainly no summer slump in this school. "The Spirit of Kansas," supposed to be the long-ing of an exiled Kansan for the windswept prairies of the Sunflower State while lying on the sands at the beach, was most effectively recited by Mrs. Edgar Lloyd Smith, who was also one of a trio to sing a song of Kansas. Rev. Cole and Miss Eva Gar-

ABOARD THE U. S. DESTROYER GOLDSBOROUGH, (Via Wireless to the United Press.)—July 27.—The race between the Shamrock and the Resolute began at 2:17 today with a very light wind. The indications were that the race would be called off again for even the light breeze was not expected to hold.

ALLIED PREMIERS IN CONFERENCE

VILLA SURRENDERS

PRESIDENT DE LA HUERTA ORDERS NOTED BANDIT TO REPORT TO GENERAL MARTINEZ

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MEXICO CITY, July 27.—The war minister announced today that Francisco Villa had telegraphed President de la Huerta offering to surrender unconditionally. Villa, who captured Sabina in the state of Coahuila a few days ago, said he had moved from Chihuahua because he feared Chihuahua officials. President de la Huerta told Villa to report to General Eugenio Martinez at Torreon.

NOTIFY COOLIDGE

MASSACHUSETTS GOVERNOR FORMALLY TOLD OF HIS NOMINATION AS CANDIDATE

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 27.—Governor Coolidge was formally notified of his nomination for vice president of the United States before 15,000 admiring spectators today.

Long before the ceremonies began all the roads leading here were crowded with machines. Visitors spent much of the time looking over the modest Coolidge home, half of which is occupied by a college professor and his family. Senator Lodge was among the notables who attended the ceremonies.

IMMIGRATION COMMISSIONER ASKS AID

SAYS THERE IS NO WAY TO ROUND UP JAPANESE WHO DESERT FROM SHIPS IN U. S. HARBORS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SEATTLE, July 27.—Immigration Commissioner White, testifying before the congressional committee investigating the Japanese situation said there is no way of rounding up Japs who desert from their ships in American harbors. He urged reinforcements for immigration forces.

ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS OPEN JULY 30

PREMIERS' CONFERENCE WILL GRANT RECOGNITION TO SOVIET GOVERNMENT IT IS BELIEVED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, July 27.—The Russo-Polish armistice negotiations will begin July 30 at Baranovitchi in the Province of Grodno near Minsk, according to a wireless received from Moscow today. Hostilities will cease immediately negotiations are begun, the message stated. The armistice line will follow the general line fixed by the Spa conference it is generally believed. Premier Lloyd-George left for Bologne today to meet Premier Millerand and Marshal Foch. It is believed the conference will tacitly recognize the Soviet government.

"MADE IN THE EAST"

LURID ACCOUNTS OF AWFUL DAMAGE BY EARTHQUAKES FILL EASTERN PAPERS

Roscoe Tharp and wife of Los Angeles were guests of Glendale friends Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Tharp arrived at home last Wednesday from a few months' visit with her parents and other relatives in Saginaw, Mich. When the earthquake that did considerable damage in Inglewood occurred, a few weeks ago, Eastern papers were lurid, she said, with accounts of the awful ruin and havoc wrought. Inglewood was reported as entirely destroyed, not a building left standing, and Los Angeles residents were reported as fleeing by thousands from the doomed city, utterly panic stricken. Mrs. Tharp's parents implored her to not return to Los Angeles and face such awful dangers. They expected to receive a telegram any minute telling of the death or injury of Mr. Tharp. She laughed at their fears, however, and said Los Angeles earthquakes were not nearly as hard to endure as the humid heat of Michigan.

As she was on her way home, she landed in Chicago just after the last severe shock, which did no damage beyond breaking a few plate-glass windows in Los Angeles. Yet the Chicago Tribune came out with monster head lines commencing "Awful Quake Rocks L. A." Then followed a statement like unto the previous ones, of tourists fleeing back East by the thousands, or rather besieging the railroad ticket offices in the endeavor to do so. Truly, one must go away from home to hear the news.

CAMPING AND FISHING AT BIG BEAR

Frederic and Horatio Butts, who, accompanied by Wilfred Sutton, of Eagle Rock, drove up to Big Bear a little over two weeks ago for a camping and fishing trip, arrived at home yesterday, 4:30 a. m. They went up by Victorville, leaving early in the morning, so they crossed the desert in the middle of the day, finding it very hot and uncomfortable. They camped at Fawnskin and enjoyed every minute of their stay. The fishing was very poor last week, but after the heavy thunderstorms of last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday during which a great deal of rain fell, the fishing was excellent and they got the limit each day, Frederic says. They left for home Sunday night at 7:30 and came by the Rim of the World route.

REGISTERING FOR AUGUST 31ST PRIMARY

To vote in the primary election of August 31st, all voters who have not registered since January 1, 1920, and all who have moved from one precinct to another since they registered last, must re-register before August 1st. At this election party nominations will be made for U. S. Senator, Congressmen, State Senator and Assemblymen, also County Supervisors.

MANY CHICKS HATCHED

The biggest hatchery in the San Fernando Valley, located at Van Nuys, has just closed the hatching season and the record made proves it to be the third largest in the United States. There were 540,000 White Leghorn chicks hatched by it during the season just closed and more than half of them were sold in this valley. The rest went to customers in other parts of California and in Arizona and New Mexico; 330 customers, in all, were supplied. The year's business footed up to almost $100,000.

"BARN YARD GOLF"

On account of two members of the Horseshoe Club being absent on account of illness, the prize games were not started last Saturday afternoon, but the first one will come off next Saturday. However, the Blues challenged the Reds to a game and took sweet revenge for previous defeats, winning 17 games, making 497 points and scoring 255 ringers. The Reds won only 13 games, but made 510 points and scored 255 ringers.

SOME POTATOES

A young Van Nuys rancher named Paul Whitsett raised 612 sacks of White Rose potatoes on two acres of ground, as is attested by several skeptical farmers of the neighborhood, who insisted on checking the number of sacks and weighing several of them. This means 61,200 pounds, 1020 bushels, or a little over 500 bushels to the acre, which is certainly some yield.

TRIP TO SEQUOIA

BROWNS AND THEIR PARTY SEE DEER, BUT MISS THE BEAR CUBS

An auto party of five returned from Sequoia Park Saturday night, the members of which were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown of 114 Milford, their sons Meredith and C. B. Beeson, also Mrs. Arbie Menhall. At Lindsay they were joined by Harold Beeson and family, the two autos making the eight-day trip together, after two days spent in Lindsay and vicinity.

On reaching Sequoia the party went beyond the main camp where they had the opportunity of seeing the deer. The deer are very tame and unafraid, as no one is allowed to molest them. Some time was spent on the Marble river in fishing and they also were in the near vicinity of the bears. They were anxious to catch a glimpse of the little cubs but the vigilant mother spirited them away before the spot was reached. However they left their tracks behind.

During their stay in Lindsay, the party visited the orange groves and the vicinity of the oil operations. There is quite an oil boom there, though no oil has as yet been discovered. The Harold Beeson home in Lindsay is located in the midst of a beautiful orange grove. The Browns also have an interest in a property at Lindsay on which are growing olive trees, grapes and other fruit. Mrs. Morton says she is not particularly interested in the oil scheme as yet.

NEW TRANSFER FIRM

J. P. Harris, who came to Long Beach six weeks ago from Atlantic, Iowa, with his wife and baby and bought a home there has gone into the regular express and transfer business with Bob Allen of 220 S. Jackson street with whom he is staying until he can dispose of his Long Beach home and buy one here. The partners are at present operating a large Moreland truck and a smaller one of another make, but expect to increase their equipment and rent or build a warehouse. Mr. Harris is very favorably impressed with Glendale, both as a business and a residence city, and will be glad when he can get his family settled here.

DR. WILLISFORD MANAGER

The campaign for the re-election of John Robert White for Member of the Assembly from this District has been actively opened.

Dr. E. H. Willisford has been selected as Mr. White's campaign manager and is already making plans for rolling up a big vote at the August primaries. Headquarters will be established in Glendale. A strong committee of men and women will be formed. Reports received from all parts of the District indicate that Mr. White will poll a heavy vote. The feeling is that Mr. White's record in the Legislature was such as to doubly entitle him to a second term. The experience of the last term will make Mr. White the more valuable to this district and to the entire state.

GEN. PERSHING CANTALOUPE

C. W. Ellsperman of Sixth and Vine avenue is a modest follower of Luther Burbank, not to a great extent, it is true, but he has succeeded in developing a highly improved cantaloupe. He did this by planting hills of Tiptops and Persians, side by side, so the bees interchanged the pollen. By doing this two successive years he developed a cross that is much richer in flavor than either. The meat is very thick and a deep yellow, while the skin is smooth and the creases very shallow. Mr. Ellsperman gave the name Gen. Pershing to this creation. It may become as popular as the Honeydew, which is a crossing of the Paul Rose cantaloupe and the casaba.

POLITICAL MEETING AT TUJUNGA

A political meeting was held in Tujunga last evening, attended by several Glendale people, Harry Coker and wife, Harry Coker, Jr., and wife, Dr. Jessie Russell, Miss Eva Daniels, Harold Phillips, Judge Harry M. Miller, Attorney Snyder, Chris. Orff and Miss Corinne. Addresses were made by Dr. Russell, Mr. Coker and Attorney Snyder in the interests of the candidacy of the two former. There was quite a large attendance from the surrounding country.

R. D. George and family have moved from 114 Arden avenue to 626 North Jackson.

STORY HOUR AT LIBRARY

The weekly story hour at the City Library this morning from 10 to 11 was made unusually interesting by the collection of 35 to 40 butterflies, many of them of rare species, kindly loaned for the occasion by Norman Keller of 1000 E. Windsor Road. The children crowded eagerly around, attracted by the rare and delicate hues of the insects and they enjoyed the story told by Miss Laura Wilford Brown of how the Indian found the butterflies. The same collection will be shown and the same story told at the Branch Library on Friday forenoon.

Members of Mary Jane Gillette Tent, Daughters of Veterans, are mighty busy women today preparing a big feed for themselves, the Sons of Veterans and visitors of both persuasions from Los Angeles, which they will give tonight in Hurt's Hall, just to show their hospitality. Glendale grocers are favored over those of some other cities adjacent to Los Angeles in that they have the goods they buy of the wholesalers delivered to them free. This practice was started by a new firm opening up business in the big city and all the others, of course, followed suit. Groceries, fresh and smoked meats of all kinds, butter, oleo, vegetables and, in fact, nearly everything they handle is landed free at their doors.

AMERICAN LEGION

DELEGATES TO SAN DIEGO APPOINTED, INVALID COMRADES TO BE LOOKED AFTER

The American Legion Post held a most important meeting last Friday night, electing delegates and alternates to the San Diego convention and deciding to take the comrades now in Thornycroft Sanitarium for treatment under their wing. They will take them auto riding, those who are able to go, give them fruit and flowers, supply them with reading matter and do everything possible to make the time pass pleasantly for the poor fellows. In this worthy cause they will have the aid of the Women's Auxiliary. The delegates chosen were Dru Nicles, Prof. R. D. White, Gordon Clayton, James McBryde, A. H. Jones and W. B. Kelley. The alternates are Joe Wilson, Dwight Stephenson, Owen Emery, Dr. C. M. Taylor, Chase Story and Donald K. McLeod. The meeting of August 6th will be a most important one also as the question of whether or no the Post is to enter the political arena is to be decided, and instructions are to be given the delegates. A most interesting discussion of the political question is anticipated.

AUTO STAGE TRIP TO AND FROM BIG BEAR

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nicolaus of 357 West Doran and son Roy returned Sunday from an outing of ten days at Big Bear. On account of gasoline shortage they did not go in their private car but utilized the auto stage by way of the Mill Creek route, or Rim of the World. Several thunder storms, followed by rain, were experienced, leaving the roads in fine, dustless condition for the return trip. While the party spent the usual amount of time and patience in fishing, they were not overwhelmed with the results. They thoroughly enjoyed their experiences.

Mrs. Lou Kirri of 230 S. Louise entertained Sunday with a dinner in honor of Miss Florence Blackman and Miss B. Blackman of Santa Rosa.

He was delighted with the quiet restfulness of the island under the new management, and the improved appearance of everything.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Barnett of 712 East Windsor Road are greatly disappointed that their daughter, Zoe Barnett, cannot visit them this summer, as is her usual custom. LaDuke of Tiptonville, Tenn., who have been living at 130 West Acacia avenue, with Mrs. Ella Griffin, for some time past, Mr. LaDuke working in Los Angeles, start for the old home this afternoon, they having received word that his sister is very ill. They do not expect to return to Glendale for some time, as they own considerable property in the vicinity of Tiptonville.

Wernette of 1330 North Louise street, accompanied by their nieces, Miss Helen Freeman, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Miss Frances Thomas of Kalamazoo, Michigan, motored to San Diego Saturday morning, returning to Glendale Monday evening, July 26th. Miss Freeman and Miss Thomas, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wernette, are returning to the east Monday, August 2nd. They are very much impressed with the beauties of California.

Mrs. Ella W. Richardson and son, Paul, of 525 South Central avenue returned Monday from a week's outing at Catalina, reporting a most enjoyable time, made especially so by their having met so many Glendale friends there. Mrs. Richardson was fortunate in getting apartments upon the hill at the MacLane, where a good view of the surroundings and the benefit of the ocean breeze were obtainable, which, she says, are worth the extra exertion of climbing the hill. Mrs. Ethel Reinhard and her brother, Murray John, of Indiana, were house guests of Mrs. Richardson the past week.

HUSBANDS AND WIVES

A New York woman has just brought suit for divorce on the grounds that her "husband is so annoying she finds it impossible to live with him without becoming a nervous wreck," and one of the faults she finds is that he "requires her to pick up his garments and to gather up his soiled collars," to which hubby replies that he deems "personal services of a wife to be a part of the duties imposed by the marriage contract," thereby raising in public an issue that has been fought to a frazzle privately in about half the households of the land.

One of the privileges which the American husband regards as his by divine dispensation is to drop his clothing where it pleases him to discard it, and to let his collars lie on the bureau in sublime faith that a careful housewife will remove them to the laundry bag in ample time to have them restored to him in ample season, spotless and stiff from the tub and iron. And it is likewise the complaint of the average housewife that she has "the most careless and slovenly husband in the world."

Doubtless, fellow benedict, you have some first hand information of your own on that score. Maybe, at rare intervals, you have a guilty pang as you hustle down to breakfast, over the wreck and ruin that you have left your wife to clean up, but was it strong enough to induce you to turn about and do the "dirty work" yourself? It was not. Perhaps you virtuously resolved to be more careful in the future, but down in your heart you knew you would do the same thing again next day.

That's the kind of husbands most of us are, but at that wives are somewhat to blame, bless 'em. As soon as a man enters his home he is treated as though the entire interior of the domestic establishment were a mystery to him and he is given the impression that if it were not for the woman of the house he would probably starve to death or go about with so few clothes he would be arrested by the first policeman he passed. Women like to feel that men are helpless without them. They love to mother them, to do for them and to scold them for their careless habits. They would be lost if there were no collars to put away, no garments to gather up. And, at all events, we have always had sympathy for those wives who have husbands who pride themselves on being effeminately neat. Mostly they are of the "careful dresser" type, run to lavender ties and pink underwear, and have a penchant for ogling foolish young girls.

We suspect there is something back of the New York woman's divorce suit she has not made public, or she is so utterly hopeless her husband would be foolish to contest her suit. Her complaints are natural enough, but they are not of the divorce court variety.

The morning sermon was on "Faiths and Works," from James 2. Rev. Cole went very fully into the subject of justification by faith and showed that while faith is absolutely necessary to salvation, works must follow faith. As James says, "you show me your faith without works and I will show you my faith by my works." Even the demons have faith, for they believe and tremble, but their works are evil. The faith that shows itself in works makes for stronger Christian character, makes others happy and builds bigger souls. Three special musical numbers added greatly to the enjoyment of the unusually large audience.

The evening sermon subject was "Lost—A Boy." The discourse was woven around the incident in the life of Jesus when He was 12 years old and was lost from His parents four days, they seeking Him sorrowing, but finally finding Him in the temple with the great doctors of the law, asking them questions and answering theirs. And His only answer to their gentle chiding was, "Why sought ye Me? Wist ye not that I must be about My Father's business?" The parents of Jesus were careless and unmindful of their duty, said the speaker, or they would not have gone an entire day's journey not knowing whether their son was with the caravan or not. So today, every parent should know just where the boy or girl is at all times. The boy that runs wild and the girl that goes when and where she wills to go, regardless of the parents' wishes, are in danger. It is a sad fallacy that "A boy must sow his wild oats," for such sowing leaves its mark on the after life of the man. "Build a wall of parents around the church and the boys will not leave it to go out into the wicked world," was the earnest exhortation of the minister. A half hour's song service, with special numbers, preceded the sermon.

DEATH OF LOUISE TRAVERSA

Miss Louise Traversa of Tujunga, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald of Los Angeles, passed away suddenly Sunday morning in San Francisco where she had been attending a private school. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald were on their way to Alaska and she was to accompany them but she was ill when they reached here. Her untimely death, for she was but fourteen years of age, was due to a sudden attack of pneumonia. Louise was a niece of Miss Sallie Braden of 204 Arden avenue and also of Mrs. Frank Dow of Tujunga.

The funeral services were held at the parlors of the Pulliam & Kiefer Undertaking Company this morning at 10 o'clock, and the body was laid to rest in the Grand View cemetery.

Jimmie Brown, who was a resident of Eagle Rock for several years and was a very active member of Glendale Elks' Lodge, part of the time captain of the Patrol, and who for the past two years has been living in Jerome, Ark., was at the Elks' meeting last night, having made a forced run in his auto from Needles in order to get here in time. He took a demit from No. 1289 when he left here and was instrumental in organizing a lodge in Jerome. He is now Exalted Ruler of that lodge, we understand. He intimated that he might return to this vicinity to live, ere many months pass.

YELLOWSTONE WILD ANIMALS RESTOCK NATION'S BIG PARKS

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo., July 27. (United Press.)—Encouraging reports regarding the increase in native American game have been received by officials of Yellowstone National Park from many cities and states to which breeding animals from the famous park reserve were donated.

In an effort to repair the damage done by hunters, who have exterminated native animals in the more thickly populated sections, it has been the policy of the National Park Service to send bison, elk, bear, antelope and beaver to public parks and state preserves where they would be given favorable environment and a chance to multiply. In some cases, the state laws have not sufficed to protect the animals, especially elk, from selfish hunters, and a number have been killed, but the remainder have shown healthy increase.

Park officials today expressed regret over reports from Europe that the European bison has been virtually exterminated in the chaos following the war. The famous herd owned by Count Potock and other rare animals on his estate were slaughtered by the Bolsheviks in their policy of destroying everything that could not be commonly owned. The czar's herd of 700 in Lithuania has been reduced to 180 animals by deserters and poachers in the forest of Byelovitsa.

More elk have been shipped from Yellowstone since last season than any other kind of game. During the hard winter it was impossible to feed all the animals and to keep some of the elk from starving to death, donations were freely made. The government of Canada received 298, which were sent to parks in the Rockies. In return, the Dominion officials generously offered to send moose, goats and sheep to Yellowstone, but the offer was not accepted because the Yellowstone moose are of a different variety, the park has never had any goats, a fact which has puzzled naturalists, and the mountain sheep already there are increasing satisfactorily.

Elk also have been sent recently to Minneapolis, Minn.; Kerrville, Texas; Palisades Park, New Jersey, near New York City; Platt National Park, Sulphur, Oklahoma; St. Louis, Mo.; Allentown, Pa.; Sonora Experiment Station, Sonora, Texas, and Pierre, S. D. Previously large shipments were made to mountain states in the West.

Much ingenuity is exercised to trap the animals for shipment. In the case of elk, a trail of succulent hay is laid into a corral and when the elk have entered, the gate is closed by means of a rope, operated by a Ranger hidden some distance away. For two days the animals are kept to accustom them to men and then are shipped in specially fitted express cars.

Buffalo, of course, come from the park's noted tame herd, which now numbers more than 500 animals. Antelope are obtained in the same manner as the elk.

Bears forfeit their freedom in gratifying their weakness for sweets. A cage trap is arranged with honey or preserves inside. The bear doesn't hesitate, once he gets a sniff. Straight into the cage he goes and the man secreted on top then pushes down the door. The cage must be lined with sheet-iron, otherwise Bruin would tear the sides to pieces with his sharp claws. It has happened that the same bear has been caught half a dozen times. Only young, healthy animals are shipped out of the park and in case an unsuitable specimen is obtained, the door is opened to let him out. Frequently, however, the sweets inside prove too much and the bear, driven away, trots back in again and again.

The industrious beaver is taken into camp in an ordinary trap. The dam is broken to expose the submerged entrance to the beaver house. Pounding on the side of the house then drives the beaver out, straight into the trap which has been placed across the doorway.

In trapping animals, the most extraordinary care is taken not to injure them. Yellowstone National Park is the nation's greatest game preserve, where more varieties of native animals can be seen than anywhere else in the country and the one place where many species, once numerous, can be found now. You may fish as much as you like, because the streams are restocked each year, but molesting the animals is visited with heavy penalties by law and poaching is a penitentiary offense. No firearms are allowed in the park unless sealed and dogs accompanying visitors must be always kept in leash.

VALUE OF A VACATION

Through various channels of publicity there comes to the reader about this time of the year an abundance of literature on the subject of vacation. Much of this takes on a painfully pedagogical tone, in which it seems to be assumed that the average vacationist knows neither where to go for his vacation nor how to enjoy it when he gets there.

The fact that vacationists and summer boarders have so often found their way into the humor column may have led the writers of this vacation literature to take the subject too seriously as a vast horde of persons bent on nothing so much as a desire to enjoy the fleeting moment, and not for one hour in their two vacation weeks finding such enjoyment. They are pictured as returning from these outings wearied of soul and body, having acquired little more than a coat of tan and a grouch more apparent than the tan.

Of course there is some truth in these charges. There are people who do not know how to enjoy themselves on their vacation any more than they know how to do it during the other 50 weeks of the year. But they are the exception, not the rule, and any attempt to teach them through a magazine article on how to enjoy vacation must end in failure, just as it would to attempt to teach anyone how to have good luck or use his common sense.

To the vast majority a vacation is just what it says it is—a vacation, a rest, resulting not so much from a release from all activity as from a change of activity. While all of us may not understand the intricacies of the physiological and psychological phenomena that take place within us when for a period of two weeks during the summer the office desk or the factory work bench does not find us on the job, the enjoyment of this release from a certain kind of task and responsibility is there just the same. The fine anticipation of this so-called rest, and the memory of it that lingers long, are eloquent testimony that the new lease of life which vacation brings is a needed stimulus.

The exception to the rule, the man who makes a botch of his vacation, as he does of other things, ought not to be allowed to cast discredit on our vacation habit.

EARNING AND SPENDING

Although it may sound like a paradox, there are women who declare it is harder work to spend money than to earn it. Women who have tried both to make money as self-supporting women and to spend money as custodians of their husband's income make this declaration. "When I earned my own money my mother spent it for me and it never occurred to me that she had any task in doing it; but now that I am married and have the spending of the greater part of my husband's income, I can truthfully say that to spend money wisely requires more hard work and ability than to make a living," says one wife and mother.

Hundreds of women who are trying to run their households economically and to save something for a rainy day, while feeding and clothing their families properly, will echo her statement.

So serious has this problem become for women because of the constant increase in the prices of things they must purchase and because of the seeming craze for profiteering and plain cheating, that many women have come to dread going into a market as they would into a den of thieves.
